Below follows a list of some free advertising sites that you can use, remembering that you are free to use other sites you know, or find online, as long as the site is a recognized one for free advertisement in your country. In case you would like to, you can also use paid advertising sites, as you wish, at the end your business is to announce Telexfree.com. Make sure to keep a record of the ads made daily, so there are no duplicated ads and be considered as SPAM. Also, keep a record of where you published each ad and expiration date, so can renew it when expired.
